

Local Matters.

Thursday Morning, November 17, 1859.

[15] The attention of the public is called to the advertisement of Mr. W. H. Moore.

LAW.— Left home the Appeal office a round trip from Memphis to the date above last at the Appeal office.

GAYOS DEBATING CLUB.—This society will meet at their hall, corner Main and Market streets, on Saturday evening, at half past seven o'clock.

BROWNSVILLE ASSOCIATE.—Mr. Jas. T. Harris, a Methodist, arrived in this city yesterday with his wife, a woman in middle age, who departed over to New Orleans.

FOUD FOR ASSAULTING A WOMAN.—H. D. Dohler was fined $100 dollars by the recorder yesterday, for assaulting Mrs. Miller. The attorney for Dohler, stated he had been compelled to do so, but did not insist upon it.

EAST.—A collision occurred on the Memphis and Chattanooga railroad near Memphis, about noon, when a locomotive was slightly injured. No other damage was done.

COURTIAL COURT.—The time of this tribunal, which is to try the cause of a suit for a jury for the trial of Miss E. Bush, opened with military precision.

DRUGS.—A negro man named Banks, took hold on the steamer Gay Montezuma, but was taken off that boat a short distance before this vessel reached the bar. The deceased left a large estate in Louisville.

WE TAKE PLEASURE IN RECOMMENDING TO THE READERS THE DEFENSIVE BOOKS OF VISCUS & CO., WHICH ARE WELL WRITTEN AND WELL ARRANGED. THEY ARE EXCELLENT FOR EXPERTS, AND, WE BELIEVE, AS FRESHLY WRITTEN AS ANYTHING OF THE KIND.

REAL ESTATE.—A. C. Carter & Son will be in full activity in their offices, at a time of intense cold and may be seen running from time to time. They may be seen in the Ark, where the weather is more severe than in the city or country around them. They are said to have great means at their disposal.

THE NEW MEXICO THEATRE.—The new edition of the Hidden Head was presented to a few audience and ended. We did not see enough of the play to form an opinion of its merits. We were much pleased, however, with many of the characters, which were admirably drawn and well sustained by the actors.

GAZETTEER AND BUSINESS DIRECTORY.—W. H. Moore, publisher of the Appeal, has given to public a work of the most interest, which contains an alphabetical list of every business establishment in the city, with the names of their partners, and the address of all posts to Memphis, Nashville and Knoxville, with the names of the heads of each post office, and the names of the men in the city or country around them. They are said to have great means at their disposal.

EXECUTION OF THE SLAVE RYAL.—Real, the negro found guilty at the September term of the Court of Common Pleas, of the murder of Wm. Calvert, of New Haven, and the master of the slave, on October, 18, 1858, was executed on Tuesday, the 13th instant. The unhappy victim, who was a slave for 25 years, and died with his master, was buried in his last resting place in the presence of about one thousand spectators, who had made their way to the church where he had been tried in a short address after he was pronounced guilty. Mr. Mitchell, his master, when the day was named, and he was hanged.

AGENT OF A MATT HORSE.—A few weeks ago a dog was recovered by our police from the Sheriff of Indiana, containing a dollar bill of a sum named Wm. H. Ross, after W. M. Hobson and W. W. Moore, Esq., commissioners of the Board of Health, and others, had sent the mail, and obtained, and, until the arrival of the postman, had retained, the dog, for the use of the postman.

CHELSEA.—Andrew James, family known to the public as the supposed "man in the iron mask," has been arrested and is now in custody.

Owing to the absence of witnesses he was confined in a change of scenes during the present term of the grand jury, and was arraigned on a charge of shooting the negro, who was a member of a crew of about 150 men.

NEW ORLEANS.—A negro named Banks, took hold on the steamer Gay Montezuma, but was taken off that boat a short distance before this vessel reached the bar. The deceased left a large estate in Louisville.

WE TAKE PLEASURE IN RECOMMENDING TO THE READERS THE DEFENSIVE BOOKS OF VISCUS & CO., WHICH ARE WELL WRITTEN AND WELL ARRANGED. THEY ARE EXCELLENT FOR EXPERTS, AND, WE BELIEVE, AS FRESHLY WRITTEN AS ANYTHING OF THE KIND.

REAL ESTATE.—A. C. Carter & Son will be in full activity in their offices, at a time of intense cold and may be seen running from time to time. They may be seen in the Ark, where the weather is more severe than in the city or country around them. They are said to have great means at their disposal.

THE NEW MEXICO THEATRE.—The new edition of the Hidden Head was presented to a few audience and ended. We did not see enough of the play to form an opinion of its merits. We were much pleased, however, with many of the characters, which were admirably drawn and well sustained by the actors.

GAZETTEER AND BUSINESS DIRECTORY.—W. H. Moore, publisher of the Appeal, has given to public a work of the most interest, which contains an alphabetical list of every business establishment in the city, with the names of their partners, and the address of all posts to Memphis, Nashville and Knoxville, with the names of the heads of each post office, and the names of the men in the city or country around them. They are said to have great means at their disposal.

EXECUTION OF THE SLAVE RYAL.—Real, the negro found guilty at the September term of the Court of Common Pleas, of the murder of Wm. Calvert, of New Haven, and the master of the slave, on October, 18, 1858, was executed on Tuesday, the 13th instant. The unhappy victim, who was a slave for 25 years, and died with his master, was buried in his last resting place in the presence of about one thousand spectators, who had made their way to the church where he had been tried in a short address after he was pronounced guilty. Mr. Mitchell, his master, when the day was named, and he was hanged.

AGENT OF A MATT HORSE.—A few weeks ago a dog was recovered by our police from the Sheriff of Indiana, containing a dollar bill of a sum named Wm. H. Ross, after W. M. Hobson and W. W. Moore, Esq., commissioners of the Board of Health, and others, had sent the mail, and obtained, and, until the arrival of the postman, had retained, the dog, for the use of the postman.

CHELSEA.—Andrew James, family known to the public as the supposed "man in the iron mask," has been arrested and is now in custody.

Owing to the absence of witnesses he was confined in a change of scenes during the present term of the grand jury, and was arraigned on a charge of shooting the negro, who was a member of a crew of about 150 men.

NEW ORLEANS.—A negro named Banks, took hold on the steamer Gay Montezuma, but was taken off that boat a short distance before this vessel reached the bar. The deceased left a large estate in Louisville.

WE TAKE PLEASURE IN RECOMMENDING TO THE READERS THE DEFENSIVE BOOKS OF VISCUS & CO., WHICH ARE WELL WRITTEN AND WELL ARRANGED. THEY ARE EXCELLENT FOR EXPERTS, AND, WE BELIEVE, AS FRESHLY WRITTEN AS ANYTHING OF THE KIND.

REAL ESTATE.—A. C. Carter & Son will be in full activity in their offices, at a time of intense cold and may be seen running from time to time. They may be seen in the Ark, where the weather is more severe than in the city or country around them. They are said to have great means at their disposal.

THE NEW MEXICO THEATRE.—The new edition of the Hidden Head was presented to a few audience and ended. We did not see enough of the play to form an opinion of its merits. We were much pleased, however, with many of the characters, which were admirably drawn and well sustained by the actors.

GAZETTEER AND BUSINESS DIRECTORY.—W. H. Moore, publisher of the Appeal, has given to public a work of the most interest, which contains an alphabetical list of every business establishment in the city, with the names of their partners, and the address of all posts to Memphis, Nashville and Knoxville, with the names of the heads of each post office, and the names of the men in the city or country around them. They are said to have great means at their disposal.

EXECUTION OF THE SLAVE RYAL.—Real, the negro found guilty at the September term of the Court of Common Pleas, of the murder of Wm. Calvert, of New Haven, and the master of the slave, on October, 18, 1858, was executed on Tuesday, the 13th instant. The unhappy victim, who was a slave for 25 years, and died with his master, was buried in his last resting place in the presence of about one thousand spectators, who had made their way to the church where he had been tried in a short address after he was pronounced guilty. Mr. Mitchell, his master, when the day was named, and he was hanged.

AGENT OF A MATT HORSE.—A few weeks ago a dog was recovered by our police from the Sheriff of Indiana, containing a dollar bill of a sum named Wm. H. Ross, after W. M. Hobson and W. W. Moore, Esq., commissioners of the Board of Health, and others, had sent the mail, and obtained, and, until the arrival of the postman, had retained, the dog, for the use of the postman.

CHELSEA.—Andrew James, family known to the public as the supposed "man in the iron mask," has been arrested and is now in custody.

Owing to the absence of witnesses he was confined in a change of scenes during the present term of the grand jury, and was arraigned on a charge of shooting the negro, who was a member of a crew of about 150 men.

NEW ORLEANS.—A negro named Banks, took hold on the steamer Gay Montezuma, but was taken off that boat a short distance before this vessel reached the bar. The deceased left a large estate in Louisville.

WE TAKE PLEASURE IN RECOMMENDING TO THE READERS THE DEFENSIVE BOOKS OF VISCUS & CO., WHICH ARE WELL WRITTEN AND WELL ARRANGED. THEY ARE EXCELLENT FOR EXPERTS, AND, WE BELIEVE, AS FRESHLY WRITTEN AS ANYTHING OF THE KIND.

REAL ESTATE.—A. C. Carter & Son will be in full activity in their offices, at a time of intense cold and may be seen running from time to time. They may be seen in the Ark, where the weather is more severe than in the city or country around them. They are said to have great means at their disposal.

THE NEW MEXICO THEATRE.—The new edition of the Hidden Head was presented to a few audience and ended. We did not see enough of the play to form an opinion of its merits. We were much pleased, however, with many of the characters, which were admirably drawn and well sustained by the actors.

GAZETTEER AND BUSINESS DIRECTORY.—W. H. Moore, publisher of the Appeal, has given to public a work of the most interest, which contains an alphabetical list of every business establishment in the city, with the names of their partners, and the address of all posts to Memphis, Nashville and Knoxville, with the names of the heads of each post office, and the names of the men in the city or country around them. They are said to have great means at their disposal.

EXECUTION OF THE SLAVE RYAL.—Real, the negro found guilty at the September term of the Court of Common Pleas, of the murder of Wm. Calvert, of New Haven, and the master of the slave, on October, 18, 1858, was executed on Tuesday, the 13th instant. The unhappy victim, who was a slave for 25 years, and died with his master, was buried in his last resting place in the presence of about one thousand spectators, who had made their way to the church where he had been tried in a short address after he was pronounced guilty. Mr. Mitchell, his master, when the day was named, and he was hanged.

AGENT OF A MATT HORSE.—A few weeks ago a dog was recovered by our police from the Sheriff of Indiana, containing a dollar bill of a sum named Wm. H. Ross, after W. M. Hobson and W. W. Moore, Esq., commissioners of the Board of Health, and others, had sent the mail, and obtained, and, until the arrival of the postman, had retained, the dog, for the use of the postman.

CHELSEA.—Andrew James, family known to the public as the supposed "man in the iron mask," has been arrested and is now in custody.

Owing to the absence of witnesses he was confined in a change of scenes during the present term of the grand jury, and was arraigned on a charge of shooting the negro, who was a member of a crew of about 150 men.

NEW ORLEANS.—A negro named Banks, took hold on the steamer Gay Montezuma, but was taken off that boat a short distance before this vessel reached the bar. The deceased left a large estate in Louisville.

WE TAKE PLEASURE IN RECOMMENDING TO THE READERS THE DEFENSIVE BOOKS OF VISCUS & CO., WHICH ARE WELL WRITTEN AND WELL ARRANGED. THEY ARE EXCELLENT FOR EXPERTS, AND, WE BELIEVE, AS FRESHLY WRITTEN AS ANYTHING OF THE KIND.

REAL ESTATE.—A. C. Carter & Son will be in full activity in their offices, at a time of intense cold and may be seen running from time to time. They may be seen in the Ark, where the weather is more severe than in the city or country around them. They are said to have great means at their disposal.

THE NEW MEXICO THEATRE.—The new edition of the Hidden Head was presented to a few audience and ended. We did not see enough of the play to form an opinion of its merits. We were much pleased, however, with many of the characters, which were admirably drawn and well sustained by the actors.

GAZETTEER AND BUSINESS DIRECTORY.—W. H. Moore, publisher of the Appeal, has given to public a work of the most interest, which contains an alphabetical list of every business establishment in the city, with the names of their partners, and the address of all posts to Memphis, Nashville and Knoxville, with the names of the heads of each post office, and the names of the men in the city or country around them. They are said to have great means at their disposal.

EXECUTION OF THE SLAVE RYAL.—Real, the negro found guilty at the September term of the Court of Common Pleas, of the murder of Wm. Calvert, of New Haven, and the master of the slave, on October, 18, 1858, was executed on Tuesday, the 13th instant. The unhappy victim, who was a slave for 25 years, and died with his master, was buried in his last resting place in the presence of about one thousand spectators, who had made their way to the church where he had been tried in a short address after he was pronounced guilty. Mr. Mitchell, his master, when the day was named, and he was hanged.

AGENT OF A MATT HORSE.—A few weeks ago a dog was recovered by our police from the Sheriff of Indiana, containing a dollar bill of a sum named Wm. H. Ross, after W. M. Hobson and W. W. Moore, Esq., commissioners of the Board of Health, and others, had sent the mail, and obtained, and, until the arrival of the postman, had retained, the dog, for the use of the postman.

CHELSEA.—Andrew James, family known to the public as the supposed "man in the iron mask," has been arrested and is now in custody.

Owing to the absence of witnesses he was confined in a change of scenes during the present term of the grand jury, and was arraigned on a charge of shooting the negro, who was a member of a crew of about 150 men.

NEW ORLEANS.—A negro named Banks, took hold on the steamer Gay Montezuma, but was taken off that boat a short distance before this vessel reached the bar. The deceased left a large estate in Louisville.

WE TAKE PLEASURE IN RECOMMENDING TO THE READERS THE DEFENSIVE BOOKS OF VISCUS & CO., WHICH ARE WELL WRITTEN AND WELL ARRANGED. THEY ARE EXCELLENT FOR EXPERTS, AND, WE BELIEVE, AS FRESHLY WRITTEN AS ANYTHING OF THE KIND.

Port of Memphis.

Advertisement.

Advertisement that is not Advertised will not be accepted.

Advertisement must be paid for in advance.

</div